

The Casio Group

The Casio Group consists of Casio Computer Co., Ltd., and its 49 consolidated subsidiaries and 3 equity-method subsidiaries, as of March 31, 2008. The business activities of these companies range from development and production to sales and service in the categories of Consumer, Timepieces, MNS (Mobile Network Solutions), System Equipment, Electronic Components and Others.

The Casio Group's development efforts are primarily the responsibility of Casio Computer Co., Ltd., which conducts basic research and development, and also develops new products and new production technologies. Further development of production technologies is largely conducted by the companies involved in production.

In terms of production, Casio Micronics Co., Ltd., and Kochi Casio Co., Ltd., are responsible for electronic components, and Casio Computer Co., Ltd. supplies other production subsidiaries with primary components. They carry out fabrication and processing of products using these main components and other components they procure, then supplying the respective products to Casio Computer Co., Ltd.

In domestic sales, products other than system equipment are mainly marketed through distributors. Moreover, Casio Computer Co., Ltd. sells system equipment directly to some customers, such as central and local government offices, although some sales of system equipment are conducted through sales affiliates in leading regions and distributors. Overseas, the company sells its products through direct or indirect export by Casio America, Inc. to North America, by Casio Electronics Co., Ltd., Casio Europe GmbH, and Casio France S.A. to Europe, and through distributors to other regions.

Casio Techno Co., Ltd. mainly carries out maintenance and servicing for the Group's products.

Casio changed the name of its consolidated subsidiary from Casio, Inc. to Casio America, Inc.
